

Animals

By: Alexandre, Casey, Laura,
Ameerah, Alexandria, & Nailah

Introduction

Theme: Animal Kingdom

Age Group: Children, Teens, and Adults

Level: Intermediate

Purpose: To show the differences in activities for different age groups who are at the same English level and using the same unit theme.

Animal Vocabulary

- Target audience: Children in grades 1 or 2
- SWBAT: Distinguish between 0 legged and 4 legged animals and correctly associate an appropriate colour of the animal.
- Main idea: Names of 4-6 animals and 4 colours are part of student's vocabulary list. The students will choose an animal and colour it in, then write a short sentence based off the picture.
- Pre-planning: Have used vocabulary list in class so students are familiar with the animals and colours.

This pig got four leg and pink.

White cat with four legs.

Pros

- Reinforces vocabulary
- Students get to choose their own animal
- A fun way to do a spelling test

Cons

- No focus on grammar
- Students may not use an appropriate colour for each animal

Blue fish 0 legs.

Black dog had 4
legs.

Animal Classification Activity

- Target audience: Children in grade 5 or 6
- SWBAT: Develop a classification system for categorizing organisms and be able to recognize that characteristics vary between all species
- Main idea: Living things can be sorted into different categories in many ways, animals are sorted based on their characteristics
- Pre-planning: Lesson on animals and include the vocabulary that they will use in the activity

Animal Classification Activity

Pros

- Practice vocabulary
- Improve listening and speaking skills
- Engage in asking questions

Cons

- Not all students may contribute to the game

Modifications

- Could try another classification system (such as a diagram or tree)

Role Play Activity

Worksheet B – Can I have a pet? Role play

Student A

You really want to have a pet. You would love to have a _____ . You think you are old enough now to look after it.

First think of three advantages of having a _____ as a pet.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

You must use these advantages to try and convince your Mum or Dad to let you have a pet.

Student B

You are the parent of student A! You really don't want any pets in your home, especially not a _____ but you had pets when you were younger and you can understand the attraction.

First, think of three disadvantages of having a _____ as a pet.

- 2.
- 3.

You must use these disadvantages to try and convince your son or daughter that they really don't want to have a pet.

Role Play Activity

Pros

- Very structured
- Semi-authentic communication

Cons

- May be too childish for teenagers
- No specific focus on grammar structures

Modifications

- Debate
- Change the topic

Endangered Animals (Adults)

<http://www.breakingnewsenglish.com/0508/050817-animals.html>

Review

- + Easy to adapt for lower proficiency level (on site)
- + Includes warm-up, pre and post-activity for the reading
- + Possibility to have an audio (turns into a listening activity)
- + Includes all 4 skills (Reading, writing, listening and speaking)
- + Easy access to different format (online, PDF, word)
- Poor aesthetic (for an online site)
- Audio not authentic (slowed down)
- Hard to get motivation from the activities (seem random, no interaction)

Animals and Endangered Species

Main Skills: Speaking and Listening

Minor Skills: Writing and Reading

SWBAT:

- Accurately produce sentences using movement verbs.
- Debate and negotiate the pros and cons of animal conservation.

Top 5
Endangered
Animals

Animals and Endangered Species

Pros

- Simple and easy instructions
- Learning/practicing verbs, prepositions, vocabulary and complex sentence building
- Interesting topic

Cons

- Lacks interesting visuals
- Minimally incorporates Writing and Reading
- Requires pre-lessons for vocabulary
- Requires a lot of monitoring

Conclusion

Even if students are of the same proficiency level, activities must be adapted to their specific age groups. The activities should be meaningful to the students in order for them to be engaged in their learning.
